ONE OF AMERICA'S PREMIER INSPIRATIONAL SPEAKERS JACK PRATT IS A VISIONARY LEADER . . .

A Dynamic global seminar leader and speaker on today's most critical business issues, Jack uses stories from his own life, leadership, management, and business experiences to bring the qualities of learning to life.

He's a former U.S. Army Corps Drill Instructor, Graduate of Officer Candidate School, Vietnam Veteran with multiple tours, experienced corporate executive, executive coach, teacher, and cancer survivor. His knowledge and vision of inspiring success, despite the barriers . . . regardless of risk . . . comes to life on the platform. Now, he's actively teaching, coaching, challenging, and engaging others to be more productive leaders.

His unique background as a senior executive and member of several Board of Directors, when combined with his engineering undergraduate studies, business graduate studies, and organizational development consulting related to management and leadership, provides him with an uncommon vision on various performance management issues.

Jack's speeches and workshops are completely different. He specializes in simple, fast, specific, easy-to-use solutions for complex problems, whatever the topic as verified by raving testimonials from all over the globe.

“ Pratt is one of the most impressive speakers I have ever had the opportunity to hear. Tremendous form in teaching that I feel will truly benefit me with my everyday management practices.

“My expectations were exceeded, and I came away with a ton of ideas how to move myself into the next phase of my career.”

“. . . I appreciated your knowledge and the class itself. I thought you were an absolutely fantastic teacher!”

“I was extremely impressed with the level of dedication Mr. Pratt had toward the subject material. More importantly, because of this seminar, our company will excel in our industry.”

“It's obvious that this ‘teacher’ has a true love and devotion to others’ happiness and success with their careers.””
